

QUANTUM FACTOR IN MEDICINE

Attention: Doctors, Students, Healthcare Professionals, Patients and the Public

Are we getting the best outcomes we can in Patient Care?

Despite the advances in technology and medical sciences, the burden of disease continues to progress. Are we making enough of an impact? Do you get the feeling that there is more to treating disease now than your training and experience prepared you for?

Bring your concerns to an open forum

Share them with others

*Learn how,
by expanding the model of disease
to include the 'quantum factor', your work can expand beyond treatment to healing*
